Students 4 Best Evidence Timeline

Nov 2012 — S4BE concept and website developed. Website and community soft launched

Jan 2013 — Full launch of S4BE with the publication of the first student authored blog

March 2014 — S4BE reaches 800 users per day, in 13 countries, 90 student contributors, 28 partners

July 2014 — Editorial on S4BE published in BMJ Evidence-Based Mental Health Journal

Sept 2014 — S4BE Wikipedia Campaign

April 2015 — S4BE awarded 'best blog' in the catagory of education at the UK Blog Awards

Nov 2016 — Website reaches 1 million page views, 2,100 Twitter followers and 2,500 Facebook likes

March 2017 — Library of evidence-based nursing resources introduced

March 2017 — First Portuguese translation published

June 2017 — 'Key Concepts' blog series launched, supported by Informed Health Choices, edited by Iain Chalmers

June 2018 — Re-design of the website goes live

July 2018 — Publication of first German translation followed by German translations of the 'Key Concepts' video series on S4BE

Sept 2018 — Translation of the 'Key Concepts' blogs translated and published on "Wissen Was Wirkt"

Nov 2018 — 1 million views of most read blog 'A beginner's guide to interpreting odds ratios, confidence intervals and p-values'

Nov 2018 — S4BE website reaches over 1 million page views per year

Oct 2019 — S4BE moves to a multilingual platform, hosted by Cochrane. Integrated with Cochrane's online products

Nov 2019 — 500th blog published

March 2020 — S4BE sessions recorded globally, 9,500 Twitter Followers, 9,600 Facebook Followers and 250 student bloggers from all over the world